I Live in Colorado. My Grandfather's name was Guy. He passed away around 20 years ago. He was in the military. He met my Grandma in Chicago and lived there until late 1970's and then moved to Colorado. Thank you for the followup. I have been trying to find the roots of Brunacci. Please let me know if you have anymore information.

Sempre in Internet, trovo un altro messaggio di un certo Lewis che, avendo letto la corrispondenza tra Greg e David, vuole contribuire con altre notizie su un altro Brunacci proveniente anch'esso da Alessandria Del Carretto:

There are Brunacci's in Albidona. Those I found and recorded are mostly in the late 1700s; the most recent Brunacci birth I have was 1805. There was also a Brunacci from Alessandria del Carretto who married into Albidona sometime before 1817 (he was born about 1760), so you might also try Alessandria. If you have any specifics you'd like me to check, please send them to me, I suggest doing so directly rather than thru the forum, so as to not bog it down with details.*
