returns to the charge respecting Spaniah affairs, we must confess a little contrary to our expectations, for we had began to fear the mercaulit's sources of information on which he relied, were completely dried up. The great complaint of The Sun appears to be, that we have not "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," when our chief aim was not or "denied his facts," which was creating, and on the fiscal regulations of our wor last treaties, and on the fiscal regulations of our wor last treaties, and on the fiscal regulations of our wor last treaties, and on the fiscal regulations of our wor last treaties, and on the fiscal regulations of our wor last treaties, and on the fiscal regulations of our wor last treaties, and on the fiscal regulations of our wor last treaties, and on the fiscal regulations of our wor last treaties, and on the fiscal regulations of our wor last treaties, and on the fiscal regulations of our wor last treaties, and on the fiscal regulations of our work handle with the wall-town of the work of the management of the work of the management of the same plant of the work of the

made, and any refusion of the part of Spain to fulfill her engagement, is a violation of the whole, and releases the other contracting party.

But The Shus accuses us of going some years back, and referring to what passed between Mr. CANNING and Admiral Apodaca a station, and admiral to the whole, and the first passed between the contracting to what passed between Mr. CANNING and Admiral Apodaca a station, and the subject in hand. Working to do with the subject in hand, when the first treaty was the basis of the whole connection with and support of Spain when the legitimacy of the provisional government was cacknowledged by Britain I and when, in addition, FRRIDINAND renewed this same treaty in 1814! Have these treaties been ratified?—Yes. Then every article its equivalent to the treaty itself, and a single one violated abrogates the whole.

The Sim cannot understand what the Inquisition has to do with a commercial treaty? We will rell him. In We consider the existence of that tribunal and a compared in the considering the support of the tribunal and a consumercial treaty. We will rell him. In We consider the existence of that tribunal and a consumercial treaty is the support of the support of the tribunal and a consumercial treaty is the support of the tribunal and a consumercial treaty is the support of the support of the Inquantos. The Sun seems quite bewildered about the subject of Spanish fiscal regulations, and how and at what time they have been applied, we shall give the following extract from a dispatch from Gonov, Prince of Peace, to Lord Garesville. Lated 5th Feb. 1'97, of which the original, no doubt, is in the Foreign Office. It will prove we have stated this material point correctly, though we shall not now give our reasons why we brought it forward at the present moment.

The King my Mater, in no way pielding to the whites of his Birtannic Majesty to diminish the evils brought on by war, has commanded me to answer the questies proposed by your Jordship, in the latter part of your letter (dated, we believe, 3d Jan.
1707), respecting the regulations observed in Spaint modeling the residence of British Merchants and Subjects (mark, not fissh

No British property has been confuscated in Spain; the efferts, debts and property of British subjects (not Irish Catholites) have alone been derained under an embarge, the same being deposited in the hands of those individuals who have denounced them, under the superintendence of the Government, for greater centrity, and in order to prevent any malversation, so that the same may be restored to their owners with more punctuality and readines, when it shall be deemed it (dust is, pavers!).

Whoever, therefore, refers to our article which first gave rise to the present contest, will find that we have neither missoncreived nor mis-stated the subject. The Wheever, therefore, refers to our arricle which first gave rise to the present contest, will find that we have neither misconceived nor mis-stated the subject. The British sufferest were chiefly members of the Spanish Club in London, and they might still add many important facts.

smaler quantity on singua processing the continuence of the capital and skill shall be employed on the soil. It well observed by ADAM SMITH, that capital is selder turned from any other channel into agriculture. The capital employed in agriculture has generally been at quired in it. It will, we are afraid, be some time fore the present cultivators of Ireland can acquire mucapital. The peasantry of that country have, unformately, been hithert over much neglected; and till dystem on which it has unfortunately been hither governed, is changed, little hope, we fear, can entertained of seeing them converted into skilful cultivators.

By an improved mode of cultivation, a great part the population would be let loose from agriculture, a employed in trade and manufactures. Whether it would add to their comfort is another question; there can be no question that the change would add the power of the State.

The most remarkable feature in the Treaty betwee the POPE and PRESCH KISOS, politically speaking, the stipulation, by which it is agreed on the own of the French Government, that the Bishoptics should be adopted the lands, as well as with somal stipulation or does it appear that this stipulation is confined to a Bishoptics, for, by the original expression of the consulcture dotations (Capitulorum, S.C., we are time consulcture dotations (Capitulorum, S.C., we are to time consulcture dotations (Capitulorum, S.C., we are to time consulcture dotations to expression of the Chapters, the Rectorics, and, in short, the whole Church Establishment.
