of her cap g...) as appears by the following

Extract of a letter from Portsmouth, June 2.

"This morning arrived the Hydra, of 28 guns, Capt. Paget; and Earl St. Vinente cutter, from the coast of France. By the Hydra we have the pleasure to contradit the account carried from Hymouth to London, of La Loire frigate having been captured off Havre de Grace. The frinth is, there has been no action, and Captain Newman brashfasted on board the Hydra yerareday morning, receiving at the same time several weeks' necessaries from the latter ship, water excepted."

The resolutions of the Committee relative to the Finance of India being read.

**Mr. Jonas entered into a variety of statements, with a wise to prove, that the debt of the Company amounted to twenty millions, instead of fourteen millions, as stated on a former evening by Mr. Dunda's; that the affairs of India were in a state very apposite to that represented by the Right Hon, Gentleman, whose "a suathine" appeared to be turned into monstaine; and that not a badow of the prosperity set forth in the resolution before the company were at present in a much higher state of prosperity than they ever were before. He was ready to admit, that the Company were at present in a much higher state of prosperity than they ever were before. He was ready to admit, that the Company was compelled to keep up large armies and at this moment there were you men in the conquest of Enypt. He concluded, by assuring the House, and the resolutions of peace in India, but this was to be attributed to the war in which England is engaged. The Company was compelled to keep up large armies awaing the House, and the resolutions were the read and agreed to.

**The Jonas said he was glad to hear what had fallen from the gloomy picture drawn by the Hon. Gentlemon.

**Mr. Jonas said he was glad to hear what had fallen from Mr. D. Scott, relative to the army sent into the Red Sea.—And the resolutions were then read and agreed to.
